NORTHFIELD

The foundations for the new U. S. weather bureau building are nearly completed and the brick work of the building will begin soon. The foundations indicate that Contractor Robbins understands how to put in a solid structure, calculated to please even the exacting government officials.

Royal Cheney, who went to Denver, Col., a few months since with several other Northfield boys arrived home Tuesday night and will remain here. He had a good position there but prefers Vermont. The other boys have good places too but whether they will conclude to remain permanently is not decided.

Twenty-four barrels of crude oil arrived yesterday and the filling of the street in Depot square began this morning. It is being applied with a hand sprayer. The experiment is being made by the merchants association, the enterprising business men having subscribed liberally to a fund for this purpose.

It is believed by many that the dust can be more effectively kept down in this manner at no greater expense than with the water wagon. It will be necessary for pedestrians to keep on the sidewalks as far as possible for a few days until the oil gets soaked in, as walking on this fresh oil has its disadvantages.

W. E. C. Washburn has also just called the road in front of his residence on Central street as an experiment on his own account.

When Your Joints are Stiff and muscles sore from cold and rheumatism, when you sprain a joint, strain your side or bruise yourself, Perry Davis' Pain-Killer will take out the soreness and fix you right in a jiffy. For over 70 years it has been the standard for emergencies in thousands of families. Don't go without a 50c. or one of the new size 35c. bottles.

Anty Drudge on Washing in a Flat.

Mrs. Apartment—"It's the hardest thing to get hot water here; you're not supposed to do any washing in the rooms. And when I do get hot water, it takes so long to wash that the rooms get awful smelly."

Anty Drudge—"Why don't you use Fels-Naptha? Then you won't have to use hot water. You will get through with your wash in a jiffy and there'll be no steam to make your rooms offensive."

To women who live in apartments the washing of clothes is a problem. The solution is Fels-Naptha soap.

No need of hot water; no boiler, no washboard. For light washing you don't even need a washtub, because the bathtub or basin will do quite well.

All you require is Fels-Naptha, cool or lukewarm water and a place to dry the clothes.

Say you have a shirtwaist or two, napkins, lingerie and other small things, that you don't have time or don't want to send out to be washed. You can do much better at home in this way:

Wet the clothes, soap well with Fels-Naptha, roll and leave to soak in cool or lukewarm water for a short time. Then rub lightly, rinse and hang up to dry.

Takes but one-fourth the time and one-tenth the work of the old way. Also saves the clothes.

Follow directions on the red and green wrap per.

From less than 27 square rods of land, Frank Kennerson has the past season sold 1,250 quarts of strawberries, from which he realized $164. Who beats that?

Several from this town are camping at East Montpelier during the annual Evangelical camping. A cordial invitation is extended, and the assurance is given that the services are well worth attending.

Over 100 people gathered at the Congregational church vestry last Tuesday evening to have a pleasant visit with our former pastor, Rev. D. L. Hilliard, and family. Cakes and ice cream were served. A few appreciative remarks by Mr. Hilliard brought to a close one more pleasant event, long to be remembered by all present.

Alaska's Problem.

Alaska, with more than 600,000 square miles of territory, has virtually 200,000 square miles untouched by the explorer. Yet in 1908 it produced almost $20,000,000 worth of minerals, $19,000,000 of which was gold.

Lack of transportation in the territory is the greatest factor keeping back its development. In these 600,000 square miles there are only 462 miles of wagon road, 397 miles of sled road, and 235 miles of improved trails. It has only 300 miles of railroad, a considerable portion of which is out of repair and idle, and only 50 miles of new road were built in 1908.

The cost of transportation has made it impossible to work any but the richest of mineral deposits in many sections of the country. Supplies must be furnished by sailing communities, and except in those remote camps where the gold deposits are extremely rich, difficulties of transportation make supplies prohibitive.

Alaska is ripe for a new era in transportation facilities.—Chicago Tribune.

Needed Invention.

The man with the protuberant bracket entered the office of a large automobile manufacturer with a confident air. "I have here a great invention, a most necessary one," he said to the president of the company.

"In the automobile line?"

"Yes, sir—a 'shock absorber'."

"But," objected the manufacturer, "there are dozens of them already on the market."

"None of this variety," said the inventor. "This 'shock absorber' is a device to break the news gently and without shock to an automobilist that his chauffeur has taken his motor car without permission from the garage, and has totally wrecked the machine out in the suburbs. That's the sort of shock absorber it is!"

"Name your price," chorused the manufacturer delightedly.—Chicago Inter Ocean.

Mean Man.

The newest "mean man" story; in a western county of Kansas the dead body of an unknown man was recently discovered. In his pockets they found $100 in bank notes and a big revolver.

"What about it?" asked the innocent one.

"You would expect that they'd have used that hundred in finding his relatives, or, failing in that, have given him a decent burial, now, wouldn't you?"

"Sure."

"Well, they didn't," is the answer. "They arranged his dead body before a justice of the peace for carrying concealed weapons and fined him $100 and buried him in the Potter's Field."—Kansas City Journal.
